The Transatlantic alliance is fracturing in a Trump-triggered geopolitical earthquake, just part of an unprecedented shakeup of the Western “rules-based global order” over the past week.

In our own backyard – Chinese warship live-fire exercises in the Tasman, rumbles in NZ’s relationship with the Cook Islands, and top ministerial visits to Vietnam, Mongolia and China. All nations of the Global South.

As Western hegemony implodes, what next? Globally renowned international politics scholar Professor Amitav Acharya unpacks the Global South's crucial role in our emerging multipolar world at our March 18 Catalyst Kōrero. Come with your questions.
