

Head of Lake Whakatipu

Natural Hazards Adaptation

Community presentation and drop-in session

Interested in the findings of two natural hazards studies for the wider Glenorchy and Kinloch areas, and exploring what future adaptation might look like?

Community presentation

7pm | Tuesday, 10 September | Glenorchy Hall

Join us to learn more about the findings of the Glenorchy and Kinloch risk analysis and the intervention study for the Rees and Dart floodplains — ask our team any questions.

You'll need to register before the online presentation starts to access the link. Once you have registered, you'll receive a confirmation email with the livestream link. The presentation will be available to view after the livestream.

Drop-in session

2-7pm | Wednesday, 11 September | Glenorchy Hall

What might future adaptation look like and how can we work towards it? Play the adaptation township game and have a go at building a pathway to a more resilient Head of the Lake community. Take another opportunity to ask our team any questions.

Interested, but can't make it to the presentation or drop-in session?

Some private appointments are available on 10-11 September. Book by emailing headofthelake@orc.govt.nz
